1.2 Reason for End of Availability

The hardware platform is reaching end of supply. A new generation product series is now available to replace these products.

1.2 Replacement Product Details

Synergy PSN and Synergy Incident Locker are now optional configuration modes for the new Synergy Storage product family, meaning that PSN and Incident Locker software types no longer need to be selected via the hardware part code.

The replacement hardware product for Synergy Server V5 and Synergy Compact V5 will be announced in due course.

Storage capacities may vary in the replacement product. Please contact your local Synectics representative to discuss the most suitable option for your requirements.
